Decker & Co. Adds Equity Capital Markets (ECM) Veteran Douglas Morin

San Francisco, CA, May 24, 2017 – Asia-focused institutional equities broker Decker & Co. announced today that Douglas Morin has joined the firm as Managing Director of Equity Capital Markets. Morin, a 20-year Asia veteran in the equity capital markets (ECM) field, was formerly with China Construction Bank International Securities (CCB) and previously was a managing director with Bear Stearns.

“Douglas and I partnered in 2009, bringing together Kim Eng Securities and CCB,” said Mark Decker, founder and CEO of Decker & Co. I have long admired his nose for quality. Douglas is the ideal person to review equity capital opportunities and bring transactions efficiently to our global client base.”

Decker & Co. launched in 2013 with a focus on ASEAN markets and has added additional coverage over time, including Taiwan, China, and Frontier Asia. In addition to facilitating public security access and trading, Decker has brought private transactions to market in partnership with its local partners.

“Capital raising transactions arise from time to time as a direct result of our focus on identifying quality, under-covered companies throughout Asia,” said Decker. “Douglas’ talents and deep experience will enable us to build on our track record and expand our offerings of interesting deals.”

Morin will be based from Decker & Co.’s headquarters office in San Francisco.
