Forth Smart Service PCL (FSMART TB) Executives Currently Traveling in U.S., Presenting BOONTERM Growth Plans

San Francisco, CA, August 17, 2017 – The makers of BOONTERM kiosks, Forth Smart Service PCL (FSMART TB) are currently in the United States meeting with foreign investment funds as one aspect of the company’s growth plans. Second-generation owner Mr. Pattanan Amatanont and Chief Financial Officer Mr. Chatchavin Pipatchotitham are hosted in the U.S. by Decker & Co., an institutional equities broker with offices in the U.S. and Asia.

“We are honored to host Forth Smart for its first non-deal roadshow to the U.S.,” said Mark Decker, founder and CEO of Decker & Co. “Institutional investors are interested in high-quality growth opportunities in ASEAN. Forth Smart’s business model in Thailand and visit to expand internationally is the type of growth story that captures attention.”

In meetings with global investors August 14-18 in several U.S. cities, the company executives are sharing operational advances through technological tools that have reduced data bottlenecks and lowered operating costs. They are also sharing a vision to expand into other countries in the Greater Mekong Sub-Region and to synchronize its physical kiosk business with its E-Wallet platform, which enables customers to purchase items using QR codes from BOONTERM kiosks.

Forth Smart is a leading provider of mobile phone top-up and online payment services, through its automatic BOONTERM kiosks, which the company manufactures itself and has placed nationally using a franchise approach that gives Forth Smart attractive recurring revenue.

Among consumers, BOONTERM kiosks are favored because for their easy nationwide access and affordable top-ups. Approximately 88% of mobile users in Thailand use pre-paid top-up. Other Forth Smart services include money transfer, cash card and e-wallets—covering a total of 64 items in four languages.
